Resolution No. . 2001-M-29

WHEREAS, Orange County, Lake County, Osceola County, and Polk County find it necessary to work in conjunction with one another to provide for the citizens of what is commonly referred to as the Four Corners area;

WHEREAS, generally speaking, the Four Corners area is located in the area where Orange County, Lake County, Osceola County and Polk County converge; and

WHEREAS, the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the Four Corners area will be best served by coordinating the efforts of Orange County, Lake County, Osceola County, and Polk County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA:

Section 1. “Needs Analysis”; General.

A. Orange County desires to work in conjunction with Lake County, Osceola County, and Polk County by funding twenty-five percent (25%) of the cost of a “Needs Analysis” to determine the best way to provide for the needs of the citizens of the Four Corners area.

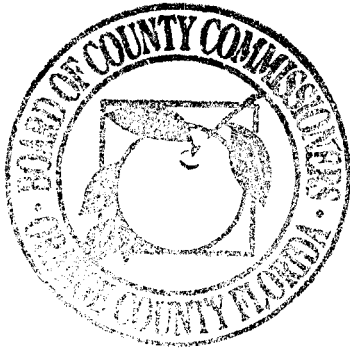

B. The cost of the "Needs Analysis" shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000), the cost of which shall be shared equally among these four counties.

C. The "Needs Analysis" shall be completed by December 31, 2001.

Section 2. Endorsement for Grant Funding. Orange County also endorses the grant application by the East Central Florida Regional Planning Council for additional funding for portions of the "Needs Analysis" through the Department of Community Affairs' Technical Assistance Grant Program.

Section 3. Effective Date. This Resolution shall become effective immediately upon the date of its adoption.
